

SECURITAS SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT FOR GUARDING SERVICE (B 05)

1 (1)

These Special Conditions of Contract and the Securitas General Conditions of Contract (A 05) shall apply to Securitas guarding services and the relating quotations and agreements. In this context, Securitas refers to Securitas Oy or the specific Securitas Group Company that is party to the Service Contract or supplies the services or the relating equipment, or to whom the claim based thereon is presented.

Operating Instructions

1. Securitas shall ensure that its guarding personnel have been given adequate instructions in order to be able to perform their duties correctly and safely. If the circumstances at the Object so require Securitas shall prepare separate guarding and operating instructions for the Object, taking into consideration the regulations on private security services, the provisions of the Service Contract and the instructions binding on Securitas. Securitas shall ensure that its guarding personnel shall perform their duties in accordance with the operating instructions and working methods of Securitas.

Termination of Contract; Changes of Circumstances

2. In the event that the basis of the Services is a financially feasible combination of operations involving several customers and a substantial change occurs in this body of customers, then, notwithstanding what has been agreed about the period of validity and notice of termination of the Service Contract, Securitas shall have the right to discontinue the Services and give notice of termination of the Customer's Service Contract to become effective sixty (60) days from the date on which Securitas had sent the notice of termination.

3. In individual cases, Securitas shall have the right for a special reason to temporarily deviate from the agreed number and extent of guarding rounds also for reasons other than force majeure within the meaning of Securitas General Conditions of Contract.

Validity of these Special Conditions of Contract

4. These Special Conditions of Contract shall remain in effect until further notice as from 1 January 2005. Any deviating conditions presented by the Customer in its order or otherwise shall become binding on Securitas only provided that Securitas explicitly approves them in writing.
