

Executive Protection service

Preventive action may be required because of threats against a person's integrity, health or life. Securitas Executive Protection is a service provided by security professionals – modern, proactive security measures to significantly increase the level of personal security.

Customised personal security

Personal protective measures to secure the physical integrity, health or life of a specific person or group of persons are always designed and delivered on an individual basis.

A service package may involve a personal protection professional accompanying the client or monitoring the situation in the background. The Securitas Executive Protection service may cover a period from a few hours to several days or weeks, depending on the client's needs.

Securitas Executive Protection forms part of a wider risk management service portfolio that may include a variety of technical and physical elements to improve personal security, transport services, home security and travel security.
